

Khustai National Park

A day join tour

The Khustai tour offered by our company also includes a visit to a Mongolian herder family with traditional nomadic life style. Located within a hour drive from UB, Khustai National Park is an idyllic location to enjoy a mini break in the great outdoors. The Khustai National Park is a place where wild horses takhi live. Przewalski's horse is the last wild horse in the world. In a herder family, you can have Mongolian traditional lunch and take a look on unique traditional nomadic items. During our short stay at herder family, we will ride a horse as a herdsman.

- Meet wild horse in their natural habitat – we have seen wild horse on every tour since 2005
- Hike through the Khustai National Park with a skilled guide
- Learn about Takhi, wild horse, and other wildlife
- Chance to see other wildlife such as maral deer, marmot, eagle other birds
- Visit to authentic nomadic family in a traditional ger dwelling

Length: 1 day

Area: Around Ulaanbaatar

Tour type: Mongolia 1 day trips

Potential date and weather condition: All year around

Difficulty: Easier – moderate (No experience necessary. Trips suitable for most ages and abilities)

Prices

Please carefully check what is include and what is not include in the prices!

90.0 USD

Included: lunch, land transportation, English speaking guide service, mineral water, all entrance fees and Government charges, all activities costs

Not included: gratuities for staffs, personal expenses, travel insurance.

Khustai Tour Itinerary

We will pick you up from your accommodation at 08:00 o'clock & drive to Khustai National Park (100 km – 2 hours on the paved road). National Park Khustai where re-introduction of the wild takhi horses (Przewalsky's horses) has taken place since 1992. Takhi is last wild horse subspecies surviving in the 21st century with richfull own history. It was discovered in western Mongolia in the late 1870s by the Russian explorer N.M.Przewalsky. Then we will be spent at leisure hiking in the surrounding mountains for seeing the wild horses. If we luck we may see also maral deer & other animals.

Then we will drive to a nomadic family (25 km – 1 hour on the dirt road). On arrival you will have lunch at the nomads' ger. Then we will ride horse. This ride will take you back through the Tuul River Valley area to the beautiful sights and sounds of Mother Nature for an hour journey up the mountain to view. With no experience required. After that we will drive back to Ulaanbaatar (80 km – 2 hours on mostly the paved road) and you will transferred to your accommodation.

End time: around 19:00 o'clock

Total driving distance: 215 km