Terelj Tour Itinerary

We will pick you up from your accommodation at 08:30 o'clock and drive to Genghis Equestrian Statue (55 km – 1 hour on paved road).

The 40 m high Genghis Khan's Horse Statue is believed to be highest equestrian statue in the World. There's an elevator to observation desk on the top of the horse head & we will go there for taking pictures.

Then we will drive to Gorkhi-Terelj National Park (40 km – 1 hour on paved road).

Situated 70 km northeast of Ulaanbaatar, Gorkhi-Terelj National Park is famous for its unique granite rock formations and pristine alpine scenery, and is a popular destination for tourists based in the capital and for Mongolians on weekend trips.

First we will see the gigantic Turtle Rock. Then we will have Mongolian traditional food lunch near Turtle rock with beautiful view area.

Then we will have some horse ride (1 hour). This ride will take you back through the Turtle Rock area to the beautiful sites and sounds of mother nature for a several mile journey up the mountain to view. With no experience required.

Then we will make short hike to picturesque lovely meditation Ariyabal Temple which is surrounded by scenic and rocky mountains and sits at middle of the them. It is not old temple.

To get to the top, you would cross the suspension bridge and climb up on 108 stairs, according to Buddhist prayer beads. In the afternoon, you will have time to relax and enjoy the natural surroundings.

It is officially part of our day tour program to visit the mongolian cashmere collective store that brings together over 30 curated Mongolian brands and more national product and souviner.

In the evening we will drive back to Ulaanbaatar city (60 km – 1 hour on paved road) and you will transferred to your accommodation.

End time: around 18:00 o'clock

Total driving distance: 160 km
